Asobi Seksu

You say you'll move on
You better not be lying
All the things you find out
I just find tiring

Our TV's blasting
Our words dividing
Like little kids now
With faces hiding

I don't know what to say
'Cause we don't have the words
We'll throw it out, it's empty
We don't have the words

If there's a reason
For all this crying
You let me know
While you're deciding
