R: Gentle Annie gentle Annie

my heart and soul are always in your care.

- When you touch me with your fingers my cares and worries vanish like the morning dew before the rising sun when you rise tell me you love me and my soul is filled with wonder and my love for you will live when life is done.

- 3. You're flower among the flowers you're bird's song in the morning you're the laughter of the children as they play you're my hope my joy and wisdom you're my reason just for being you're my treasure you're my very night and day.

 R: Gentle Annie gentle Annie

- 4. When the mountains all come tumbling and the earth stop its turning when the winds don't blow and stars refuse to shine when the moon has left the heavens and the seven seas are empty I will still have gentle Annie on my mind.
