

Died Yesterday

Asphyx

i can't control my bloodlust anymore there's no way back for me after all these years of pain and oppression my eyes are now to see the maggot that you are and i'll crush you i'll crush your cenotaph

my sympathy is gone
my conscience passed away
it died yesterday

for years you squeezed the hatred out of me until it consumed me and when the gates to my soul opened up there was nothing but darkness so I can't control my bloodlust no more there's no way back for you
after all these years of pain and oppression

i'd like to see you beg i'd like to see you suffer but you died yesterday

you always had me beg you always had me suffer the torment lies fresh in my memory the scars will never heal so you had to suffer the ultimate anger that tore your soul apart and I licked the fresh-spilled blood of my blade the work is done
