

M.S. Bismark

Asphyx

Her name it means power her silhouette brings fear no mercy for the dreadnaught when the sight at sea is clear she's defying every dancer through mist, ice and snow dominates the oceans and its depths below

She spreads terror and death when her cannons spit lead she the ruler at sea gladiator of steel

In a dark and misty night she went for open sea slipping through the allied maze whose radar couldn't see now the deadly game begun with the home flee on her tail and in the demonstration she sank the hood and the prince of waves

Steaming on with dignity continuing her mission enjoying every victory reloading the cannons

Solem iron majesty goddess of destruction with her banners high to the last confrontation

Seventy-one torpedos couldn't sank the battleship The Bismarck become runderless because of one lucky hit

She was to proud to bow sunken by her own crew now the glory lives on gladiator of steel
