

Lost

Astarte

Into this world something is hunting me
Searching for shelter in despair
Follow the steps in to the muddiness
Altar of madness in her face

In the heat of the night
In the fear of the dark
Someone spin me a trap

In the heat of the night
In the fear of the dark
Someone spin me a trap

Feel the hatred down my spine
Seeking endless for a sign
Black at heart nothing to find
All in vain into my mind

Can you ever wonder why
In a world which full of lies
Nothing left but you remain

Lost in a world of fear
Take away my pain

Lost from the true belief
The way which i feel

Lost in a world of lies
Where nobody cares
Nothing to loose or win
Lost in the dark
