

Wash

Astrid van der Veen

You can steal my happiness
For a while
'Cause I know I'll get it back and then I'll be alright

Can't you be a little more
Than someone
Who will never ever understand

And now you've forgot
About the fight
But I still remember your hurting words
And it hurts

I know someday the pain will pass
And leave
And you will fill my life with love
Yeah, love

So you can wash all my love
So you can wash all my love

So you can wash all my love for him

And you can watch my face
So my eyes will burn
Inside my head

But those tears will dry
Fly away
Making a cloud to rain again
Rain on me

So you can wash all my love
So you can wash all my love
So you can wash all my love for him

So you can wash all my love
So you can wash all my love
So you can wash all my love for him
