At the Drive-In

i'm an incision
the kind that glistens
and not to mention we appeal when we've healed
i'm an incision, just an incision i've got polaroid value in a celluloid way

with twelve hard years of currency and they trade it all for the current scene
the kind that glistens
polaroid value
celluloid way

this air condition
is on intermission we're burning on the border like they said that we would

and we appeal when we've healed burning on the borders like they said that we would

and they trade it all for the current scene they're partial to the way you speak blue tagged, blue tagged and incomplete
