

Pendulum in a Peasant Dress

At the Drive-In

They're spraying our block
With Chem trail praise
And all the crisis actors want to man the hotlines
Talk you off the ledge
Hermetically seal it
In accordance to the rules of harmony

One shot
Delivers us from
What the heart don't want
But the heart is broken
One shot
Delivers us from
What the heart don't want
But the heart is broken
One shot
Hits in the gut
She's a pendulum swinging
For fences
She's just a lantern jaw
Plagiarizing ground assault

TV's gonna comm lag
Jettison the populace
Disassociation in the belly of the beast
Break the fourth wall
Break the fourth wall come on
Lobotomize the question of my infinitude
An ensemble of dissent
She's just tampering with alarms
But she's tampering with blatto
Finely tune their gestures
Tampering with false alarms
Swinging for electric fences
Electric fences
Come on and get me out

One shot
Delivers us from
What the heart don't heart
But the heart is broken
One shot
Delivers us from
What the heart don't want
But the heart is broken
One shot
Hits in the gut
She's a pendulum swinging
For fences

The hand of God keeps me from watching
Feel it raining down and down
Triangulated at the crossing
I never knew what knocked me out
Facsimile shadows my last breath

Feel it raining down and down
The hail of doubt will always stop you
On the night that they bowed out

One shot in the chamber
The hand of God keeps us from watching
The hand that's always raining
Down and down and down

One shot
Delivers us from
One shot
Delivers us from
One shot
For fences
