

Winter Month Novelty

At the Drive-In

bite the hand that feeds biting off more than you can are you sure you got the right hand skilled and all because this left hand spit have you been crying over your spilled milk?

swallow your refills
the drink of drinks
we drank ourselves to sleep on the mistletoe concrete we blank this page with ink two for flinching
when the paper cuts sink
cause the paper cuts hurt (sure enough as) i burned myself in the cigarette crossfire
sure enough as
my ears kissed the floor just to hear a mouthful

you scratch the itch on the tome of your dial have you been crying over your...

more than you can choose more than you can chew
