King Of Your Dreams

At Vance

Somewhere between
The day and the night
You're hidin your aim's Waitin to fight

Face of an angel old to be wise but you are hidin the devil in disguise where does it end and where do you want to go the borders you'll bend I guess you will never know

Open your eyes
try to be wise
and you'll be the king of your dreams tryin to see what you want to be then you'll be the king of your dreams

Violence and hate is the harvest you'll get pay close attention they might take your head

don't play with fire
you won't stand the pain
they call you a liar
they call you a shame
