

Lost in Your Love

At Vance

The summer breeze in your hair
Seems to be so warm and tender
Is your love really true
That it can't stand anything
Where we gotta go thru
Then I'll send my love to you

Thru the dark and the night
Thru the day and the light
I will hold you forever
Anywhere that you go
I would share all my dreams
But it seems that you don't understand

That I am lost in your love
Cause you
came like a force from above
So I will open my heart
Won't you try
Try to make a new start

But times may change as they say
But my love for you is far
Beyond their range
Nobody's with me as I'm on my way
Watchin the waves in
The sea searchin for my Destiny

Thru the dark and the night
Thru the day and the light
I will hold you forever
Anywhere that you go
I would share all my dreams
But it seems that you don't understand

That I am lost in your love
Cause you
Came like a force from above
So I will open my heart
Won't you try
Try to make a new start
