

Attention

Atari Terror

Sound of heavy boots is cranking up
Too many steps are breaking silence
In the city
We have to stay we have to stay
And wait for the alert siren
Attention!!!
Let's set free our little freedom!
Machines between ruins
Are grinding innocent skulls
Missing eyes are following blind line
Human honor disappeared
Under lies, under minds
. . . under motofokin' voice!
We are ready to kill!
More attention please!
Enemy's lines will never knock me down
We have to win for every time!

BLOOD IS MUCH BETTER
THAN MOTHER'S MILK!
Propaganda! attention!
Biotechnology! attention!
No freedom! attention!
Medial slavery! attention!

Soldiers, don't fight the slavery,
fight
you, the people have the power,
the power to create machines, the power to create (
in the name of the democracy,
let us all unite!

Sound of heavy boots is cranking up
Too many steps are breaking
Silence in the city
We have to stay . . . we have to stay
And wait for the alert siren . . .
Attention!
Let's set free our little freedom!
We gotta follow the path
And try to stay to the end
Suffering and revelation
It's time to suffocation
Then lies our truth's the way
. . . the way
We are ready to kill

More attention please!
Enemy's lines will never knock me down
We have to win for every time!

BLOOD IS MUCH BETTER
THAN MOTHER'S MILK!

More attention please!
Enemy's lines will never knock me down
