

Sky Burning

Atari Terror

baby's crying in the small house sunset colours are disappearing sky is burning, dream's dissolving little man's arm shows a new future...
blind, deaf and dumb
help me! ...screaming many points are crossing my view they are making too many clouds for such a sunny day people's crying behind barbwires redblack cross is full of a power sky is burning, one man's falling everything is lost in flashlight reich opened arms
deep pain...everywhere dark laugh is cutting through the hope dreaming's a luxury i must follow my endless hate i'm the ghost and i can break your locks and see my life again
dead empire collapsed in its own fearfulness... blooming bodies, blooming buildings their leafs are everywhere... and red power's rising from the ashes ...
...temporary smile
trust us, we are the faith... what you find! we'll build the new world! arbeit macht frei! there is no way back! hey you, you fought on the other side!
with a pickaxe i kill the last piece of me i can't believe what kind of shit you are?! my red brothers, you can watch my steps but you can't kill my unbreakable hope!
