

Connections Are More Dangerous Than Lies

Ataris

1. Electric windmill skyline
The cracking soil beneath my feet
These pearls drenched with lust
This empty bed, the sweat soaked sheets
It's like they emptied out the ocean
Bodies mending this scorched earth
It's like they emptied out the ocean
Bodies mending this scorched earth
- X: So call me on your long walks home
Where drunken voices bleed into one
- R: If you're not in love, stay where you are
If you're not in love, stay where you are
If you're not in love, stay where you are
If you're not in love, stay where you are
2. I will to you the smell of burning leaves
Rusted windchimes and the feverish glow of fireflies
We were such terrible liars
We were such passionate lovers
We were such terrible liars
We were such passionate lovers
- X: So call me...
- R: If you're not in love...
- *: We awoke on your cluttered bed
To the schoolchildren below
Our teeming hearts
Habitual words are effortlessly false

We were such terrible liars
We were such passionate lovers
We were such terrible liars
We were such passionate lovers
(3x)
- R: If you're not in love...
