

Arms Wide Open

ATB

I've been hiding
Always trying
Shouting, wondering
Searching for silence

Never knew what I was supposed to do
You've given me something that I never knew
Don't ever hesitate to call me too
You're the light in my storm

Arms wide open, open
Arms wide open, open

Unlock the chains that are holding you
Feels like I'm home when I'm next to you
Arms wide open, open
