

Hold You

ATB

All the things that I told you
All the things that I never mentioned
All the things that I told you twice
Give me something to turn to
Like an answer that asks no questions
Give me something that i can fight

All the things that I told you
All the things that I never mentioned
All the things that I told you twice
Give me something to turn to
Like an answer that asks no questions
Give me something that i can fight

I dont wanna hold you
I dont wanna hold you down
I dont wanna hold you down
I dont wanna hold you
I dont wanna hold you down
I dont wanna hold you down

I will always adore you
As the love with no intersection
Never knows what it means to cry
Chase the wind and she'll steer you
Trap the heart and you'll never get it
These are the things I've done for life

I dont wanna hold you
I dont wanna hold you down
I dont wanna hold you down
I dont wanna hold you
I dont wanna hold you down
I dont wanna hold you down

I dont wanna hold you
I dont wanna hold you down
I dont wanna hold you
