Killing me inside

ATB

You know, I tried to find a way,
A means to keep it high,
Forced to yield to blinded sentiment.
And you know, I tried to give it up,
With efforts to make sense
Of senseless cries and smiles stirred by vain.

I'm crashing,
I'm falling,
And I'm losing,
You're killing me inside.

You know, I tried to find a way,
A means to keep it high,
Forced to yield to blinded sentiment.
And you know, I tried to give it up,
With efforts to make sense
Of senseless cries and smiles stirred by vain.

I'm falling apart,
Crashing down,
You're killing me inside.

I'm falling apart,
Losing my mind,
And you're killing me inside.

I'm falling apart,
Crashing down,
And you're killing me inside.

I'm falling apart,
Losing my pride,
And you're killing me inside.
Killing me...

I'm crashing,
Falling,
I'm losing.
(and I'm losing you)

I'm crashing,
I'm falling,
I'm losing,
And you're killing me inside.
