

Pages of ink
I watch them blur and bleed
Are these words all that's left of me?

These cracks in my heart
I'm painted with these scars
I'm blinded I'm falling apart

Fall on me like water
Wash me clean
Write my story over again, oh
Break me out of silence
Set me free
'cause I'm at the end
So write my story over again

Again
Over again

Break me out of silence
Set me free
'cause I'm at the end
So write my story over again

Pages of ink
I watch them blur and bleed
Are these words all that's left of me?

These cracks in my heart
I'm painted with these scars
I'm blinded I'm falling apart

Fall on me like water
Wash me clean
Write my story over again, oh
Break me out of silence
Set me free
'cause I'm at the end
So write my story over again
