

Right Back to You

ATB

Replaying a memory
To keep you in my mind
And I'm waiting
For another chance
To look into your eyes
The clock's running out
And with every breath
It's getting late
And there is no excuse
'Cause I'm living on
The memories will make

Out in the moonlight
There is a sunrise
I'm thinking 'bout you
And it would be so right
If you could be my light
I'll give it right back to you

'Cause out in the moonlight
There is a sunrise
I'm dreaming 'bout you
And it would be so right
If you could be my light
I'll give it right back
To you

I'll give it right back
To you

The closer you get to me
The further you're away
But when the rain falls
In the summer time
It reminds me we're ok
Cause what's meant to be
Is our destiny
You're etched into my memory
It took a long time
But now you're all mine

Out in the moonlight
There is a sunrise
I'm thinking 'bout you
And it would be so right
If you could be my light
I'll give it right back to you

'Cause out in the moonlight
There is a sunrise
I'm dreaming 'bout you
If you could be my light
To you
