

Wait for Your Heart

ATB

One more time with emotion
It's so delicate
When you're painting someone's heart
It's a little bit hard to be so eloquent
When you don't know where to start

I'll wait where the moonbeam hides
I'll wait on the other side
Away from the words I know
I'm waiting for your heart
I'm waiting for your heart to drop

One more time with some feeling
I'm not finished yet
I'm just trying to find the start
I try to say what I'm meaning
But nothing seems to fit
When I'm trying to fill your heart

I'll wait where the moonbeam hides
I'll wait on the other side
Away from the words I know
I'm waiting for your heart
I'm waiting for your heart to drop

I'll wait where the moonbeam hides
I'll wait on the other side
Away from the words I know
I'm waiting for your heart
I'm waiting for your heart to drop

When you're painting someone's heart

One more time with emotion
