

When It Ends It Starts Again

ATB

Cold,
stay down,
don't say a word
I hear, I fear.
Deep,
life beats down beneath your skin,
beneath,
a world away.

On and on with everyday.
We're alive and we're okay.
A notion, a feeling.
Well after the light is far behind,
We'll ship out and stay you keep a smile in silence,
as you take away, the long way home.

Taking my time going the long way, I'll remember this.
Maybe you're not longed to fade away.
You will show me a light where my heart lay,
time and time again.
And when it ends, it starts again.
And it starts again.

Taking my time going the long way, I'll remember this.
Maybe you're not longed to fade away.
You show me a world where my heart lay,
time and time again.
And when it ends,
it starts again (7x)

And it starts again.
You show me a world where my heart lay,
time and time again,
and when it ends,
it starts again, and it starts again,
well it starts again, starts again.

Taking my time going the long way, I'll remember this.
Maybe you're not longed to fade away.
You show me a world where my heart lay,
time and time again.
And when it ends,
it starts again (7x)
