

Paragraph

Athenaeum

I got stuck in the middle of a paragraph Broke my pen in the nick of time
I dont know if I'd be here right now
If I'd finished that fatal line
And that's no jive Cause brother I swear I'm happy to be alive and I'll never speak of suicide If everything works out this time

I got stuck in the middle of a sentence Couldn't find the right words to say better still, cause there's no forgiveness back again with some heavy debts to pay and that's okay, cause brother I'm starting to see some things your way
So I'll put it off another day
I didnt want to let it wait

I got stuck in the middle of a
Broke my pen in the nick of time and I dont know if id be here right now If I'd finished that fatal line.
yeah
