

I'm losing you in lust
See it

Strangers sleeping in my bed, it should have been you instead
All alone in the sweats with eyes I've never met

I've been losing pieces of your face
I'm losing you, I'm losing you in lust
Once distinct but how the memory fades
I'm losing you, I'm losing you in lust

It's just an option not to stay
Not a phase
It's just a chance you'll have to take
Not a phase

Strange to sleep in this bed
I wonder what the lines of the ceiling meant Sign me up for a grant that's you or it's

I've been losing pieces of your face
I'm losing you, I'm losing you in lust
Once distinct but how the memory fades
I'm losing you in lust

It's just an option not to stay
Not a phase
It's just a chance you had to take
Not a phase

And now love isn't right
And now I'm fucking time
Not a phase
It's just a chance you had to take
Not a phase

We're all born as friendly apes
We're all born as friendly apes
We're all born as friendly apes
We're all born as friendly apes
