Modern Aquatic Nightsongs

Atlas Sound

Is your love worth the nausea it could bring? Is your love worth those you left hurting? Is your love like a thousand bells ringing? Is your love bright like a shining golden ring?

Run to the one that holds you down And feel your feet on the ground And hope the ground opens up And swallows you and your love To the ground you will seek Only love, only peace Will it find you today? Will it find a way?

Is your love like a sunset chandelier? Is your love like a song only you hear? tekst z www.mp4.com.pl Is your love tight - that old familiar f ear That your love might one day disappear

Run to the one that holds you down And feel your feet on the ground And hope the ground opens up And swallows you and your love Is it (does it feel) wrong is it (like a bridge) right Does it (when your heart) makes your head (When your heart is open) And my heart is a cold cold cold

(I'm so cold I enter void I've seen such weird light Calling me towards the bring end bright cold Bright so brittle cold cold cold...)
