

He Did It Again

Atomic Rooster

Crane-J. Du Cann
Did it again.
Monday morning, distant weekend,
Always the same, 'cause he did it again.
Tuesday lunchtime, thoughts are changing.
Said he'd pack it in, but he did it again.
What's the matter, what's the matter?
Does he have to do it over again?
What's the matter, what's the matter?
Does he have to start all over again?
Does he have to do it over again?
Over again - it's over.
But he did it again, he did it again.
But he did it again, he did it again.
Wednesday waiting, no creating.
Waited so long, but he did it again.
Thursday thinking, friday praying.
Every week he always does it again.
But he did it again - it's over.
But he did it again, he did it again.
But he did it again, he did it again.
But he did it again, he did it again.
But he did it again, he did it again.
