

Without You

Atozzio

October second was the day an angel was sent my way and i cant deny, she lift me high, higher than ive been before i understand the simple truth there aint no me without you, yeahh and when im down youre always there

a million ways to make this clear

im thankful everyday how good it feels to say, yeah im nothing without you, yeahh
you made it possible
and because of this i know, yeah im nothing, im nothing without youu four years ago

my life forever changed the day you came into my life it will never be the same you gave me something to live for cuz i just couldnt go on no more and im glad i got you now when im down
a million ways to make it clear

how good it feels to say im nothing without you
im nothing, im nothing without you (you, youu) i'll never forget how much weve grown and all of the times we weather each storm i will always remember too perfect to forget ya (on my mind, everyday, everyday, everyday) so all these words are just for you an angel was made December 19th (?) (i wanna show ya)

how good it feels to say, ohww
you made it possible (you made it possible) and because of this i know (and because of this i know) im nothing, im nothing without youuuu (yeah, yeahh.)
