I'm going to give this monster life, I may not have the pieces. I'll keep on going through the night, To see you all left screaming. Face-to-face, The congregation of the damned. Face-to-face, Screaming while we can. I get carried away, Lost in a moment, Torn into pieces, Of violent display. I tear it away, Lost in a moment, Searching for answers, I'm lost in the fray. This life's a case, Of do or die, Sometimes I need no reason, To lose myself, In you tonight, Right now's the darker season. Face-to-face, The congregation of the damned. Face-to-face, Screaming while we can. I get carried away, Lost in a moment, Torn into pieces, Of violent display. I tear it away, Lost in a moment, Searching for answers, I'm lost in the fray. The congregation of the damned! The congregation of the damned! Face-to-face, The congregation of the damned. Face-to-face, We're all, Screaming while we can. I get carried away, Lost in a moment, Torn into pieces, Of violent display. I tear it away,

Lost in a moment, Searching for answers, I'm lost in the fray. I tear it away,
Lost in a moment,
Searching for answers,
I'm lost in the fray.

I get carried away,
Lost in a moment,
Torn into pieces,
Of violent display.
I tear it away,
Lost in a moment,
Searching for answers,
I'm lost in the fray.
