

The Time Is Now

Atreyu

Here at the starting line, a never ending race
What I've got inside, is a common place
I've been dreaming about hopeful better days
Time for dreaming's done, Time to face the sun

(Flying high above the world)
It's a new life, it's a new mind
And I will never fall

(The time is now)
I can't contain myself, I've never felt so alive
(The time is now)
I'm past the breaking point, I set my soul on fire
(The time is now)
(The time is now)

I cannot stop, see another way
Am I looking for another cheap escape
I've been pushing forward, crushing everything
It's a push and pull, it's a give and take

(Flying high above)
And it's a new life, it's a new mind
And I will never fall

(The time is now)
I can't contain myself, I've never felt so alive
(The time is now)
I'm past the breaking point, I set my soul on fire
(The time is now)
(The time is now)

Now! Now! Now! Now!

(The time is now)
I can't contain myself, I've never felt so alive
(The time is now)
I'm past the breaking point, I set my soul on fire
(The time is now)
(The time is now)
