

Dark Days

Atrocity Solution

A shadow covers this city again.
You gotta wonder is this the end.
When was the time that the city slept.
It's a change and the whole entire city wept.
When were the days that weren't so fucking dark.
A history that we all seem to forget.

Dark days they come so fast,
I can only hope that they don't last.
Cuz every second is getting worse
I can't believe that I'm not cursed.

The dead city is calling out.
Gotta wonder why were in doubt.
When was the crime at its very least,
another vision of a perfect society.
When was the corruption of these police,
a minor myth that came down in history.
