

For Ever And A Day

Atrocity

I'm watching the moon-set
Walking through the woods
Tasting depth of winter
Morbidity and doom

I saw one million faces
I saw one million deaths
Colours are in dark-grey
Veil of emptiness

Stalking in a nightmare
I was lost long ago
I gave all my love
Spirit's feeling low

Sorrow - i'm dead-tired, tired of life
Eternal dusk my dungeon and desire

Shadows - dark face in autumnal tints
Covering me, lost in immortality

Crossing the old bridge
Like one thousand times before
Sadness, autumnal equinox
Sunbeams - nevermore

Soulful - my heart is bleeding, my soul is seeking
For salvation and release
Soulless - no more longing, no more loving
Just the ashes of my thoughts

For ever and a day
Death is the salvation
For ever and a day
Life is the damnation
For ever and a day
Ghosts are hunting me
For ever and a day
Death is the salvation

Stamping underwood down
Plot revenge that kills
Leaving life behind
Sowing death and thrills

I saw one million faces
I saw one millions deaths
Colours are in dark-grey
Veil of emptiness

Sorrow - i'm dead-tired, tired of life
Eternal dusk my dungeon and desire

Shadows - dark face in autumnal tints
Covering me, lost in immortality

For ever and a day

Death is the salvation
For ever and a day
Life is the damnation
For ever and a day
Ghosts are running free
For ever and a day
Death is the salvation

Sorrow in shadows
Soulful but soulless
Throughout time and space
Misanthropic race
Manhunting, echoing pain
Endless night starts again

For ever and a day
Death is the salvation
For ever and a day
Life is the damnation
For ever and a day
Ghosts are hunting me
Death is the salvation...
