

Love Is Dead

Atrocity

I feel a cold breath of wind
Black sky in mourning-veil
I see no worth-living reason
Oh no,
It's driving me insane
Pangs of love
Never thought I would feel this way
I see your face in every cloud
And I say to myself
Don't let me, let me fade away

Love is dead

I walk through desert fields
Black ravens surrounding me
I have no more jest for life
No more,
I'm bleeding from inside
A once opened heart
Never thought I would feel this way
I search for any reason or cause
Which I could never find
So I blame myself for things I don't understand

Love is dead

All my life is pain
Drowned in tears
Never thought I would feel this way
Everyday I die once more
My heart turns black
Never again safe and warm

Love is dead
