

Triumph At Dawn

Atrocity

You, my allies concentrate!
Power of nature- storm and typhoon
Wind and cyclone, tornado, storm tide
Surprise attack!

Triumph at dawn
When the world is still asleep
Triumph at dawn
Glorious victory

Glaring lightning strikes, thunder rolls
The deluge is raping the land
Ice and fire bring up the rear
United impact

Rising force
Irresistibly

Bowels of the earth break out
Earthquakes crush the ground
The whole land is bleeding
In fiery heat

We march to end years of depotism
Our banners carry dark colours in the sky
Never shall be the empire of sadness again
Conquer, dehumanize the only command

Triumph at dawn
Fall of tyranny
Triumph at dawn
Glorious victory

Morbid intelligence shall be banned forever
Overthrown by superior strength
Seizure of power frees garden mould
Spirit over power, force over mind
