Last Breath

Attack Attack!

Is this my last breath? I can't breathe, I'm choking on my own condescending words. Answer me Will you ever answer me?

Aren't you gonna answer me? When I am crying out your name and I'm lost in shame. Lead me on my way, And give me words to say. (Words to say)

And I can't see That I've lost my dreams, Carry me, cause my heart is weak

Is this my last breath? I can't sleep This world inside my head is run by my anxious thoughts Give me peace Will you bring me off my knees?

Aren't you gonna answer me? When I am crying out your name and I'm lost in shame. Lead me on my way, And give me words to say. (Words to say)

And I can't see That I've lost my dreams, Carry me, cause my heart is weak

Is this my last breath? I've been trying aimlessly, over & over To fill this void inside of me.

My mind's in a cage And I'm on my knees. (On my knees)

I can feel the shift go inside my head, Am I going crazy?

And I can't see, that I've lost my dreams, (This is is my last breath) Carry me, cause my heart is weak (This is is my last breath)

I can't see, that I've lost my dreams, yeah And carry me (You gonna answer me?) Cause my heart is weak

Answer me!
