Attack Attack!

I'm searching for the meaning You said you'd be my everything I guess your words mean nothing So go and prove your loyalty

Go ahead and bury me deep down inside Cage that longing in your heart Hold that thought just for a moment Let your heart feel numb

Now I see that this is what you mean When you said you'd be my everything So go and prove your loyalty

This is what you are
You'll never take me
This is what you'll get
You're separation
This is who I am
You'll never change me
Loyalty!

Now I see this is what you mean When you said you'd be my everything...

Now I see that this is what you mean When you'd said you'd be my everything So go and prove you're loyalty
