

The Peoples Elbow

Attack Attack!

Oh the blood, oh the blood, oh the massacre!

Your love will run and hide,
and leave me on my own.
The true one, will fall,
so hard baby, and thats why this hurts.

I always thought that you would be the one,
but baby now just give me a chance.
I always thought that you would be the one,
but baby just give me a chance.

This is the last chance you get what you want,
and ill never be the one to turn on you,
and i get what i want, and i said,
ill do anything, anything for you.

Ill pull apart this possibility,
from one night stands,
you give it away for just one night,
ill give you all i had.

I always thought that you would be the one,
but baby just give me a chance.

Oh the blood, oh the blood, oh the massacre!
