

Time Is Up

Attack Attack!

There's something that you wanted to tell me
There's something that you want me to know
There's something that you want me to hear
Then why the Hell wont you say it?

There's something that I wanted to tell you
There's something that I need you to know
There's something that I want you to hear
So why the hell wont you listen?

I know your insecure
But I'm done living with the blame
I'm sure that we both know
Time is up, Your time is up now

Save it
I'm not waiting for you
To understand

There's something that you wanted to tell me
There's something that you want me to know
There's something that you need me to hear
So why the Hell wont you say it?

I'm through talking
There are better times ahead of us now
Just leave the past
Coz time has come for us to move on

Save it
I'm not waiting for you to understand
I wont quit but I refuse
To keep on carrying you
Do you understand?

I know your insecure
But I'm done living with the blame

I'm sure that we both know
Time is up your time is up now
Time is up your time is up now

Save it
I'm not waiting for you to understand
I wont quit but I refuse
To keep on carrying you
Do you understand?

Time is up, your time is up now
