

The Love Between You And I

Attack In Black

Maybe, mabe in a lifetime the ones that we will resurrect my monument immortal but tarnished I suspect that holdes my generations failures put to song the jail cell holding all our years undone the passing of the time we killed when we were young the archives of our blessed few and all that they've done wrong or havn't done at all

(chorus)

when the longing in all our lives fades as light resigns away beneath the skyline
'neath the cities
our emptiness reads like a sign with all the love between you and I

I'll mind my future as the sunlight tends to life though my divinity may tightrope the sharpest knife 'cause I've got none of what lies above beyond the stars and sky, beyond the flight of dove

(chorus)

x2

our emptiness read like a sign
with all the love between you and I
