

You're Such An Only Child

Attack In Black

You'll never learn your lesson
You'll be left behind
When all is in the open
I'm the one who will be unkind

So long I've been watching
Nothing seems to change your mind
Soon they'll be no one with you
Then you will feel my size.

You're such an only child
You're such an only child
You're such an only child

Who will grow so tired
