Young And Proud

Verse Kids on the street so young and so proud. Kids on the street their voices are loud. Kids on the street got nowhere to go, where the people on the s treets are telling them no.

Kids on the street are writing history. Kids on the street got power and glory. Kids on the street have seen the light cause people on the stre et have no future in sight. Chorus Kids on the street.....

Attak