

Boiling Point

Au Revoir Simone

I don't want to see it through.
I don't have the heart to fight.
Lower the flame or try to raise the boiling point.

Hide away from here.
Hide away from here.
Take me to another place.
Take me to another place.

So hard to be with you.
Always the same to strike, or fight, or fire.
Forever ash to flame.
No risk before it cools down.

Hide away from here.
Hide away from here.
Take me to another place.
Take me to another place.
