

Reminisce

Auburn

Lets make believe that you're living a dream, its time to wake up so enlighten me.

Tell me what you think, don't say you know cause' no one knows who you are anymore.

Just bring yourself up, there's no way out of here.

You say that your life is gone, I know you can make it through tonight.

Bring me back, just bring me back to those days.

Your veins are filled with hate, stop putting me down my friend won't you come back around?

Just bring yourself up, there's no way out of this place if you have no hope; then you might as well drown.

Just bring yourself up, there's no way out of here if you have no hope; then you might as well drown.

You say that your life is gone, I know you can make it through tonight.

Bring me back, just bring me back to those days.

When we loved, we wont forget.

Lets take our time, move a little slower tonight.

We pay the price, we pay the price to keep our heads up.

Now the person I was is just a distant memory.

My reflection is a stranger to me.

How did I get this far?

Not knowing where I've been.
