

Are You Ready for Love

Audio Adrenaline

Broken widow
And fatherless child
I've turned my back on you
I missed the point here
I over analyzed it
Somewhere I missed the clues

Are you ready for love?
Are ready for real emotion?
Are you too comfortable to join the revolution?

Oh, this love is revolutionary
When it's inside of you
It's just so simple
I never realized it
I never had a clue

I fall down
I fall down to my knees
Fall down and weep
With joy
