You Still Amaze Me

Audio Adrenaline

There's nothing new under the sun Left for me to do The last great thrills I've felt are fleeting Once I was excited For the things the world could give But no more I'm only thrilled by you,

R: And you... ...you still amaze me You still amaze me Bigger that the sky Brighter than the sun You're the one

You filled me with the things I need And gave me something more And I've ran with the freedom That you gave me You're the reason for the stars that decorate my night So I sing, yeah I sing

R:

You're the maker And I'm free to be loved I'm alive from your gentle touch I'm touched from the sky Let me cry, you're amazing
