

Drained Out

Audio Bullys

Maybe something magical will come my way (2x)

I'm fed up, drained out
Take a bullet, blow my brains up
Let me end it, let me stop it
Take my body on the roof and drop it
I'm in a mess, I'm in a state
My situation is false and grey
I'm on the down and I'm on the bottom
To be honest I'm feeling rotten
I'm on the floor, I'm on the tiles
I've lost my touch, I've lost my style
I'm on the edge, I'm on the brink
Imagining blood dripping down the sink
I miss my girl I miss my family
Too much cocaine, too much Brandy
Was it the romance took it lifestyle
I need a rain dance I need a world crash

Maybe something magical will come my way

I need to rush out of this gloom
Escape the underlined doom
I need the guts, I need the spirit
I need the people that really wanna live it
So set me free out my cage
Let me run away from the burning rage
I'm on my own yeah again
Just me, the TV and my pen
I've pissed away everything I have
Yesterday I rode over a truck
All the beauty, I've created
Turned me into everything I hated
But I won't let it drown me
No, I won't leave the party
'cause it's early and I'll do it
Any problem I have to chew it
I won't be broken, the words I've spoken
Hold them in and I'm still dreaming
I'm in hell, I'm in a trap
I feel the punch, I feel the slap
I feel the sting, I feel the pain
I see my whole life dripping down the drain

Maybe something magical will come my way (2x)
