

Struck by the Sound

Audio Bullys

I wanna send this one out to my brothers Paus and Bleees (?)
'Cause to me, you are the biz' nizz So listen to this never a day goes by that I don't think about how we used to catch jokes..

It seems nowadays I'm prone to spend much of my time in the studio putting down some keys and tones (?) and it was only myself that talked Me
I'll never ever see

Well there was a day
when everything changed it wasn't the same
ever again
Well we were just kids rolling on through just playing with things that we never knew
could do what they do
The truth came tumbling through

Tell my boys I love 'em I'd never do them wrong Tell my girls I love 'em I'll be home before too long yeah yeah
yeah yeah yeahyeah

it wasn't the same ever again we were just kids
doing to do
that we never knew
The truth came tumbling through it came tumbling down and crashed on the ground and everyone around was struck by the sound and knocked down oooooooooooooh
yeah yeah yeah
