

1. Someone falls to pieces sleepin all alone someone kills the pain spinning in the silence to finally drift away someone gets excited in a chapel yard catches a bouquet another lays a cousin white roses on a grave

R: To be yourself is all that you can do to be yourself is all that you can do

2. Someone finds salvation in everyone and another only fame someone tries to hide themself down inside their selfish brain someone swears his true love untill the end of time another runs away is everyone united?
or is everyone insane?

R: To be yourself...

(solo)

R: To be yourself...

You can be fading up and pulled apart or been in love every single memory of could have been faces of love ___ is asleep tonight i'm sure everything will end up alright you may win love but to be yourself is all that you can do
