

I Will Belong To You

Audiovision

Help me now
Take my hand
With you I'm strong
I will belong to you

Fall, the mighty Babylon fall
Your lifestyle blackened the world
You turned your back on God
Through the shadows of death

You're always by my side
You light up the way for me
You, you are the father of lies
You're hiding, darkening the truth

Expect the fall of man
You slaughter and destroy
Hating the light and the pure
You call the world of your own
