

Read Between The Lines

Audiovision

Now I'm here to find the reason
My thoughts are spinning around
Same old story again
Endless hours and a restless man
Feed my needs with something more
I need it now before it's too late

I have to read between the lines
When my world is falling apart
Get closer to the meaning
We win or lose but we're all the same
We need love to play this game
Read between the lines

I see the bird outside my window
Spreading her wings to fly
Easy in total freedom
Turn the page and look beyond
Feed my needs with something more
The peace inside is all I need
