Hell Hath No Fury

Audrey Horne

Drop a line dear Leave a light, let me know when you go to sleep I've been drifting outside your bedroom window I'm cold and numb out here I've been shaking You stir up all my fears and rattle these fragile bones No one is safe here The rats have left the ship We're all adrift at sea

Armed with your bare fists you started raising hell And they looked at me and wondered who could tell

I need a savior Someone with an engine to get me out of here You crossed the oceans Sank a ship or two, none left alive I heard Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned Hell hath no fury like you do Like you do Like you

Armed with your bare fists you started raising hell And they looked at me and wondered who could tell That you turned out to be a monster, a curse and a burden But your distorted screams are making me feel OK

Drop a line dear Leave a light, let me know when you go to sleep I've been drifting outside your bedroom window I'm cold and numb out here
