Hell Hath No Fury

Audrey Horne

Drop a line dear

Leave a light, let me know when you go to sleep

I've been drifting outside your bedroom window

I'm cold and numb out here

I've been shaking

You stir up all my fears and rattle these fragile bones

No one is safe here

The rats have left the ship

We're all adrift at sea

Armed with your bare fists you started raising hell And they looked at me and wondered who could tell

I need a savior
Someone with an engine to get me out of here
You crossed the oceans
Sank a ship or two, none left alive I heard
Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned
Hell hath no fury like you do
Like you do
Like you

Armed with your bare fists you started raising hell
And they looked at me and wondered who could tell
That you turned out to be a monster, a curse and a burden
But your distorted screams are making me feel OK

Drop a line dear

Leave a light, let me know when you go to sleep

I've been drifting outside your bedroom window
